Date: 06/03/2023
Latitude: Longitude:
Comments: 'No components of the fishing gear was attached to the baby orca, it was caught in the net. Orca was freed from the gear by the crew opening the codend and placing it back in the water. Orca was able to free itself and swim away within a few seconds. I couldn't see the orca, only the outline of its dorsal and caudal fins as it was struggling. No component of the gear was lost. No fresh blood or observed injuries on the orca. While in the net the orca was vocalizing and after being freed it dove.'
