65429	Fisheries	National Historic Preservation Act Compliance	NMFS is responsible to consult under the National Historic Preservation Act (NHPA) Section 106 process. Due to the Pacific Coastal Salmon Recovery Fund's large-scale, multi-year scope of projects, and funding programs, it is not possible to identify, evaluate, and assess potential effects on historic properties that may occur as a result of funding activities prior to the NEPA decision for state and tribal commission grant awards. Consequently, there is a need to develop procedures and programmatic agreements (PA) to ensure NHPA Section 106 compliance, including affording consulting parties an opportunity for early consultation on projects. Furthermore, the development of standard operating procedures (SOPs) are also needed to consult with individual tribal grant recipients under the NHPA Section 106 process.
