How do you want to handle this one? Looks like someone at the WH drew with a marker on the image of our official forecast. Starts at the 18 sec. mark.

Hey Scott,

I'm working with Jason/Andrew at The Washington Post. We noticed the White House release this video earlier on with a drawn on appendage to the National Hurricane Center cone:

We were hoping to see if you could comment on whether or not this was a legitimate, official forecast.

Many thanks,

Matthew
