Subject: Do Not Listen to the Mentally Ill President

Hello! Wake up! Pass this along to whomever posted that gross statement regarding this recent hurricane and Alabama. Yes, I appreciate someone is trying to keep their job. Someone up above should be powerful enough to give the president his medications to help him sleep. If his doesn't have a good doctor, I have plenty to recommend. I know... I know... he can't let go. I understand that. We've all had that mentally ill relative but we all seem to manage. We're not talking comedy show here. We're talking about the US Government. STOP COMPROMISING OUR NATION BY LYING SO BLATANTLY.
