Mr McLean, thank you for bringing my attention to the article in the Post. I hadn't heard the news. Thank you for standing up for what is right! You have earned my respect and that of my family and friends. May you sleep well at night!

Mr McLean,

I am appalled that NOAA is undermining the NWS for what clearly are political purposes. This has to be one of the most sycophantic moves in our history. There are no good things that will come of this to Americans. And that sir you will have to live with every day.
