Subject: Hurricane You're Fired

Hi,
You are fired. You have one year to collect your things and never work in this field again. Your lies are despicable. You are in for a hurricane of shit this week for your lies. Know this, we will not forget the perpetrators who tried to destroy our great nation. Your career is over. Pack your shit up, clean your office and get the hell out. Don't let the door hit you. Lying scum! Fascist!!!

The Truth
