Dear Ms. Roberts,

Your despicable support for a bogus hurricane forecast undermines the trust of the American people. Anyone with a first grade education knows that hurricane Dorian would never reach Alabama. You lowered your own standards (if you had any to start) to please the president's ego. You should be ashamed and should resign immediately. The truth is coming out as your own employees are sharing the communication about not contradicting Trump. Please pack your bags and go!

Sincerely,
James Thomas
