Subject: Seriously?

The public relies on the National Weather Service, but now, in doing Trump's bidding, you have let us all down and lost all credibility. It makes me sick that you are okay with his campaign of disinformation. You threw your own National Weather Service under the bus to serve HIS interests and no one else. You should be ashamed of yourself for having no backbone whatsoever. Trump is a little dictator and you just propped him up. Disgusting!

Also, you should resign.
