You are an independent agency.

The president was in error when he included Alabama in the warnings about hurricane Dorian. Just plain wrong. He could have panicked an entire population to take actions to protect themselves from a non-existent threat. Your Alabama office was absolutely correct to correct the comments and prevent any unnecessary worry by the people of Alabama.

Your job isn't to stroke the ego of the president of the United States.

You were wrong to publicly rebuke the Alabama Office. Shame on you.
