Dear Mr. Jacobs,

I cannot understand why NOAA would sacrifice its reputation to make the president appear to have been right. All he had to say was, "I just realized my information was wrong. Glad Alabama is safe." Just because he didn't own it doesn't mean NOAA has to lie. Citizens rely on NOAA— and will be more dependent on them as the climate changes. Please don't undermine your agency. We have to be able to trust you.

Thank you,
Kat Kelly
