Subject: Your part in dismantling a national treasure

I am sending this email to express my complete and utter disgust to the both of you for allowing yourselves to be used as political pawns by this president who can't stand ever being wrong. You are partisan to the possible dismantling of a vital, national treasure. This is a crime by the president as outlined in the following article, "Trump Accused Of Altering This Chart, Which Is Technically A Federal Crime", and you are officially accomplices. How can we, as U.S. citizens, ever put our faith in NOAA again, knowing that you capitulate so easily? Even worse, how can you look your colleagues in the face knowing you sold them down the river, and for what, to placate and mollycoddle a president who has about as much business being president as any of my 6 dogs? If you can't do the job, and do it with a modicum of respect and just a little responsibility to the country, then you need to resign, effective immediately. I am posting this email to everyone on my facebook with the suggestion that they contact you as well.

Trump Accused Of Altering This Chart, Which Is Technically A Federal Crime

On Sunday, Donald Trump tweeted false information that Alabama would likely be hit by Hurricane Dorian. - 'Alaba...
