Subject: Supporting your staff

This is directed to the person responsible for the dressing down of the Birmingham office of the NWS. I assume you know who that is.

Shame on you. Absolute shame. You have besmirched the reputation of NOAA by undermining the scientific integrity of NOAA. The toadyism manifested in your support for the erroneous statement of our mentally challenged president is worse than awful. When good people fall under the sway of tyrants, it is a sad day for all of us who depend on you to do the right thing.

You can do better.

Don Barkman
