Historically, one of the low points in our nation. Trump ignores science and honesty while his flunkys - YOU - jump to his defense.

When Trump's imperialistic egomaniac orders are carried out by our government-paid leaders like the NCOA's Neil Jacobs, America is on a slippery slope to losing its democracy. Politics should not alter science, truth and honesty. Trusting our government is the foundation of everything and destroying that confidence is a negative attitude which hurts our nation.

We need presidential energy and leaders focused on important issues, not CYA and kindergarten fights.
