Subject: Time to check in today?

Russ, Can you help us get one consolidated set of Shasta comments COB today, or over the weekend? We got two different emails this morning. The first has 234 comments, the second has 529 comments. It's pretty unreasonable to expect our folks to work between two such unwieldy sets of comments, which may well be conflicting. Can you please consolidate, and ideally highlight your top ten for Monday's directors meeting?

I am told there are also 143 comments on the Delta section. We are all thinking Shasta is top priority to try to get on same page.

Thank you! (I'll try to reach you by phone as well).
