To piggyback....this was not quite "ready" to go to you but we thought an extra day could be helpful. I plan to continue cleaning it and Evan and I are still addressing some items (in yellow). There are also a few items that Maria wants in and I simply need her language for those parts. I'll be working on it over the weekend to have it ready to send with the bundle on Monday, so please send me what you have at COB today and Evan and I will build off of that.

Thanks -
Cathy

Rosalie,

We're trying to keep any version control issues manageable, so only sending the attached to you (Maria has a hard copy of an earlier version that does not include my track changes). We think it's in decent shape (despite the track changes) for your read and valuable input.

Thanks!
