Morning Brian,

Just added a few sentences to your WR write up. I thought it was pretty good. Covered all of the important points. I am attaching my edited version to this email. Please take a look and let me know what you think. If you agree with the edits/comments I can upload it to the server with my initials.

On the server. File name is: 2.8 Integration and Synthesis ELLROTT WR V1

The species portion is relatively solid, the CH portion is light.
