Thanks Joe. I'm on it, or will be in a minute. Just capturing some edits to the American uncertainties bullets, then will hit Garwin's comments. Might ask you for help though, depending on how ugly they are. Besides his comments, I wanted to update the figures, and likely make some tweaks.

Hey Brian,

Checking how this is going. I'm waiting on reviews for Rosalie at the moment and can work on Garwin's comments to the American effects section if you aren't already on it.
