Subject: Re: Loss numbers for SR and steelhead -- data and slides

Yes, thanks Barb and Jeff!

fyi, I may flip the PA and COS columns in the slides to match the left to right order of the PA-COS column.

Subject docs attached. Jeff and I collaborated on these. We drafted some slides; use as they are or snag the parts you need. (Note that there are no changes to the steelhead I&S slide and no room for the loss table; so added a new slide with just the loss table).
