Russ and Jana,

Here are some NMFS comments on Appendix C that come from the perspective of trying to integrate an Adaptive Management Framework into the draft charter. Our take away from this exercise is that it would take quite a bit of work and would require a willingness and commitment from all of us to undertake this effort. Also, we would need to realize that the state is going to need to plug into this effort if we decide to take it on, so we should talk about that tomorrow.
