Maria,

Attached, in reverse chronological order, are the tasks/assignments completed by each team member. I started off by identifying the top priorities for tomorrow.

Note: Some folks are still working, so the summary isn't quite updated with the complete story of what got done "today."

Let me know if you'd like a different format, more or less details, etc.

Hi Garwin,

I know everyone's busy, and I had very limited time to connect with you today, but can you please send an email by tomorrow night (and every night thereafter) summarizing what work got done by the team (listed by member) and what is top priority for the next day? Since you are task master, I am assuming everyone is reporting on a daily basis to you. If this isn't the case, let me know.

Thanks

- Maria
