Thanks Russ,

Attached is our latest on the American River. In general, we are good with accepting nearly all of the suggested edits with a couple of very minor areas (such as replacing a "would" with a "may" and a couple of other things that we can walk through if needed. The green highlight indicates that we are good with the edits, the yellow indicates that we had a minor adjustment to the recommended edit. The red text in the comment bubble highlights NMFS comments (note, the red text in the comment bubble does not indicate a problem!).

Hello all, re-sending the three documents for our 5 pm call so that it's in one place toward the top of your inbox.
