Hey Evan,

Looks good to me, no comments. This is probably the most succinct way to organize the action but it still makes my head hurt!

Hi All,

I'm sending this to everyone but it's mostly for the division leads.

Anyway, I've read through the PA and have tried to diagram/deconstruct the action in a way that made (some) sense to me. Please take a look at the attached figures and see if the way I've laid out your division makes sense to you. Also the first slide of the ppt is a diagram of how Reclamation broke-out components of the PA according to table 4-6 of the BA. The subsequent slides diagram the different divisions.

Any feedback would be a big help but rather than comment or change the ppt slides, please add comments or suggestions to the linked Google Doc:
