Hi Jeff and Garwin,

Is there any way one of you could print out 3 copies of the attached list (3 pages long) for today's meeting? It has all the potential participants from your email distribution and participants from the last 2 workshops. I figured if you, Garwin and I each had a copy of the table then we could quickly check people off as we go around the room rather than trying to write everyone's name down. If not, I can just have this up on my screen and do it right in Excel.

Thanks!
