Subject: ROC PA -- Needs Some TLC

Hey other chipmunks (three of them!) --

The PA had a lot of conversational comments re: hatcheries. It's beyond both me and Evan to try to nail this down, so I'm flagging it for you two b/c I think that would be most efficient. I've cleaned it up to that point and am happy to make/direct any changes you want, but you should make the call on what needs to be in there.

Latest is saved at location below, but I have told Susan to import to the new template if she has time (she may not on Monday).
