Just an FYI -

I inserted a TOC at the top of this section, just so it is easier for you to find the section you are looking for within the document and see how it is put together. Before you start inserting text in the sections below, the headings below are kind of a jumble.

Hi Susan --

Can you provide a formatted template for the integration and synthesis, or let Joe know when it is ready? He's going to start drafting and may as well get it in the right type of doc earlier than later.

Thanks!
