Reading through your 1:40 pm version. I am attaching the brief write up for the DPM results and a quick discussion on the delta survival portion of the WRLCM. There is a place holder for Russ Perry's modeling. Still trying to figure out the best place to slip this section in without too much disruption of the current structure.

Not final. I'll be working on it tonight more. Let me know if there is anything you have that you want me to drop in.

HI Barb,

I haven't seen any emails from you yet, so I'm just checking in to see how you are doing? The last save version I see in the share drive is from 1:40 pm. Is that the final version for you?

Jeff
