Subject: Workload for Wednesday

According to the game plan, tomorrow is clean up of references--ensure missing references are identified and sent to Norma. You can also:

- Double check all PA components for characterization of framework programmatic
- Crosswalk the effects tables to the I&S tables to ensure they are consistent.
- Work on memo to the record

Reviewed the sections Barb sent to me and provide comments.
Found documents that were not in the end notes (most).
Placed my write up for the Perry survival analysis into the share drive

What is game pan this week to move forward?
