Hi Evan -

Brittany and I have done the first cut at inserting the endnotes into the Stressor Intro section.

There are quite a few that are NOT in the CVO Ref library and others where we need some clarification. Many of the ones that were missing during my review are ones that Steve (I cannot find his email address, so did not cc him) cited, so hopefully he has those pdfs and can get them to Norma for inclusion into the library.

If anyone has questions or needs some help/explanation on what we've done, please ask!

Susan
