Hi Ben,

The website does not show an April update, so it's difficult to see what has been updated. Could you send us the word version of the updated BA with track changes and a clean version so that we can compare to the last version that we received?

Thank you!

Howard

Hi Howard,

The ROC BA chapters and Appendix E were updated on the website. We're still working on getting an updated version of Appx C on the site.

Thanks,

Ben
