Equipment: tangible personal property (including components of information technology systems) having a useful life of more than one year and a per-unit acquisition cost which equals or is more than $5,000.

Equipment Disposition

Required when acquired equipment no longer needed for original project/program or other activities

Current	per-unit	fair	market	value <	$5,000
---------	----------	------	--------	---------	---------

Current per-unit fair market value ≥ $5,000 with a useful life of 1+ years

Equipment may be kept *, sold, or disposed of with no further obligation to Awarding Agency

Equipment may be kept* or sold with compensation to Awarding Agency (Awarding Agency's share % of interest ×
current market value of equipment)

^{*}for use on other Federally supported work/projects

Disposition Instructions (DOC Specific)

- Disposition instructions must be requested from DOC, when equipment is no longer needed.
- If DOC does not provide the disposition instructions within 120 days, equipment with a value of $5,000 or more can be kept or sold by the non-federal entity.
- Title may be transferred to Federal Government or eligible third party IF Non-Federal entity entitled to compensation for percentage of fair market.
- DoC reserves right to transfer title to Federal Government or a third party.
- Disposal costs charged to award or paid to Non-Federal Entity by DoC.
- If instructed to ship equipment elsewhere, DoC to reimburse Non-Federal entity.

Research Award Recipients & Equipment

Per the Research Terms and Conditions, Department of Commerce (DOC) permits non-Federal entities with research awards to own equipment upon acquisition without conditions and without obligation at the termination of the project.

Research award recipients do not need to request disposition instructions or submit equipment forms, unless specific award conditions direct the recipient otherwise.

Real Property (2 CFR 200.311)

Real Property: Considered land, buildings, land/building improvements

- Title vests in the non-Federal entity
- Must be used for original intended purpose as long as needed
- Disposition: when no longer needed on the original project, disposition instructions must be requested from the Awarding Agency
 - ✓ The non-Federal entity shall retain title after compensating the Awarding Agency
 - ✓ If the non-Federal entity decides to sell the property, they must give the awarding agency the federal share percentage times the proceeds of the sale, less expenses associated with the sale.
 - ✓ Transfer title to the Awarding Agency or third party

Federally-Owned and Exempt Property

Federally-owned Property:

- Title remains vested in Federal Government
- If DOC/NOAA no longer needs the property it shall be declared excess and reported to General Services Administration. Example: depreciating equipment such as an x-ray machine, boats, etc.

Exempt Property (acquired under Federal award):

 Title vested in Non-Federal Entity when deemed appropriate by DOC/NOAA per explicit terms and conditions or statutory authority. Example: equipment under Research Terms and Conditions

Intangible Property

Intangible Property: property having no physical existence, including but not limited to trademarks, copyrights, patents, debt instruments, lease agreements, and stock.

- Title vests in non-Federal entity
- DOC reserves royalty-free, nonexclusive and irrevocable right to reproduce, publish, or otherwise use the work for Federal purposes, and to authorize others to do so Supplies: all tangible personal property other than those described as Equipment. A computing device is a supply if the acquisition cost is less than the lesser of the capitalization level established by the non-Federal entity for financial statement purposes or $5,000, regardless of the length of its useful life.

- Unused supplies > $5,000 must be sold or retained for use on other awards
- May not be used to provide services or supplies for a fee less than that charged by private companies for equivalent services/supplies

Notification from Grants Online - Closeout Finalized

The above referenced Financial Assistance Award supported by NOAA ended on 2019-05-23 18:12:08.0. All received reports have been reviewed, and accepted as final in the format presented and in accordance with 15 CFR Part 14, Sections 14.53 and 14.71. As this award is officially closed, the option to re-open is not available. Any remaining funds not used or drawn down during the award period will be deobligated. Your files should be kept intact for a period of three years from the date of the final Financial Status Report or, until a final audit resolution (if applicable) is reached.

- All non-Federal entity records pertinent to a Federal award must be retained for a period of three years from the date of submission of the final expenditure report.
- If litigation, claim, or audit is started before the expiration of the 3-year period, records must be retained until all litigation, claims, or audit findings have been resolved and final action taken.
- Records for real property and equipment acquired with Federal funds must be retained for 3 years after final disposition.
- When records transferred to or maintained by Federal awarding agency or pass-through entity, 3-year requirement is not applicable to the non-Federal entity.
